

VOYAGE MANAGER ADDS SILVER LINING AS THEY JOIN THE CLOUD

(Cambridge, 25 July 2011) Voyage Manager Ltd, a leading travel management company, joins enterprises around the world, such as The NY Times and NASDAQ, as it switches to cloud based services.

Being based in the cloud gives Voyage Manager the scalability necessary for continued growth and adds further reliability to the already comprehensive service that Voyage Manager provides.

Working with organisations of any size, Voyage Manager is a fully automated, web based service which manages company travel, tracks trips as they progress, notifies important people of safe arrival and informs the traveller and company of any problems along the way.

As an innovator in the development of travel management technology, Voyage Manager is very pleased to be able to provide an even more reliable and customisable service for their clients through the cloud.
